Oxford Textbook of # Medicine

SIXTH EDITION Volume 3: Sections 16-21

EDITED BY

Christopher P. Conlon

Timothy M. Cox

OXFORD

OXFORD

Respiratory infection

18.4.1 Upper respiratory tract infections

*	Pathological findings	Autolitatory Sindings
gago	Engargement: the lung is wet, oedernatous, and congested.	Crepitus ratile (crepitations)
d enge	Red hepatization: the lung is dry, red, frable, and solid like liver.	Branchial breathing
egen l	Grey hepatization the lung is softer and esudes yellow purulent maneral indicative of esolution.	Rhanchus crepisus redux (return of crepitations)